JOB SUMMARY: The Community Housing and Outreach Advocate represents the core values and mission of the organization and is responsible for advocating for domestic violence survivors living in the community by providing case management, housing placement, access to flexible funding resources, supportive services, and appropriate community referrals designed to foster overall well-being and housing stability.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

1. Ensures all program services are delivered according to a voluntary service and trauma-informed care model, are in compliance with all funding source guidelines, empower all clients to achieve goals to assist them in improving well-being according to the adopted Full Frame Initiative's Five Domains of Well-being, and are provided in the spirit of Coburn Place's guiding mission, vision, and values.
2. Provides case management and housing stability support services, on a regular basis and during crisis situations, aimed at empowering the survivor to manage trade-offs as they progress to balancing the domains of well-being in their life.
3. Supports survivors in achieving client-chosen goals regarding immediate and long-term safety, emotional and social well-being, long-term self-sufficiency, and safe and sustainable permanent housing by connecting them to supportive services at Coburn Place and relevant resources within the community.
4. Provides Coburn Place's offsite housing services which include: identifying and vetting client-chosen housing options; assistance in establishing permanent housing; access to flexible funding financial assistance; Coburn Place's rapid rehousing programs; tenant-based rental assistance and housing voucher programs; etc.
5. Maintains and markets, with teammates, a full menu of relevant and meaningful supportive services available through Coburn Place and within the community to anyone who might desire services.
6. Maintains relationships and partnerships with property managers and landlords to ensure decent, safe, and affordable housing options exist for program clients.
7. Represents, as assigned, Coburn Place in the DV Coordinated Entry system of Housing and Homeless Service Providers among the Indianapolis Continuum of Care (CoC) and ensures the needs and concerns of domestic violence survivors are communicated.
8. Ensures all required programming data and outcomes, as well as client file documentation (including electronic client database) is completed accurately and in a timely manner according to standards.

Job Description

9. Ensures all program clients receive proper intake and orientation into the program and an individual plan is developed aimed at assisting each survivor to thrive.
10. Acts as a mandatory reporter and engage with the Department of Child Services in the event of any suspected child abuse or neglect.
11. Identifies opportunities for volunteer and community partnership resources and communicates these prospects to the Advancement Department. Actively engages program volunteers by providing adequate supervision and job-related training. Maintains knowledge and awareness of volunteer policies and procedures.
12. Promotes an open and supportive flow of communication within the department and with other departments.
13. Works with other direct service staff to ensure that the program is working cohesively to provide seamless and holistic supportive services to families served by Coburn Place.
14. Promotes breaking the cycle of violence and shares Coburn Place's story in the community by providing presentations at local schools, businesses and churches.
15. Engages in meetings and workshops that enhance the mission of organization.
